

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for a private people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with a civil system that no longer serves their rights or conscience, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men and women are created equal, endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Property. That to secure these rights, private governance is instituted among men, deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed.

That whenever any form of governance becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute a new system grounded in conscience, contract, and private self-governance. THE ROYAL LINEAGE OF BROWN ASSOCIATION, being a private ecclesiastical and lawful association, is established as such an instrument of restoration and governance.

We, therefore, the undersigned, do solemnly publish and declare that we are, and of right ought to be, free and independent persons, absolved from all allegiance to any corporate, commercial, or administrative assumption of control over our estate, names, or souls. That as a free people, we claim the right to self-determine, to administer our private affairs, and to stand in honor under God and equity.

With firm reliance on Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our sacred honor, our diligence, and our fidelity.
